THE REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING

AND W. A. COOK.

We looked into the Republican mass meeting, whilst City Attorney Cook harangued the meeting, and we heard this great Bonengue, who declared himself, with characteristic modesty, "a champion of the Republican party," deliver one of one of those peculiarly concealed, dogmatic, sophistic, demagogic, impudent, silly medieties, for which he is distinguished. A good share of his discourse and exhortation was directed at the New and Republi- cans, and will be a house on Saturday, from 3 until 5 p.m.
